Thursday Thoughts

Everything is either an opportunity to learn and grow or an obstacle that keeps you stuck...
You get to choose.

Reading, writing and arithmetic are on tap in the next month or sooner for some. Children's Ministries and Young Adult Ministries are now soliciting your help with providing school supplies for our children and the community. The collection barrel will be placed in the vestibule of the church to collect your donations.

On Saturday, August 2, we will celebrate the end of Vacation Bible School with fun and festivities. School supplies will be distributed to students and we welcome all children to attend, so invite friends and neighbors.

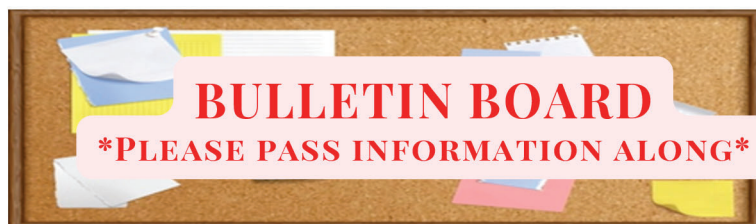

As always, thank you for your generosity and support.

In celebration of National Wellness Month, join us for Unwind — a joyful back-to-school gathering designed to help families pause, play, and prepare for the season ahead. Held in the African Ancestors Memorial Garden at the International African American Museum, this afternoon invites all ages to come together in a space rooted in reflection, care, and community. Families will enjoy a mix of mindful moments and engaging fun—from music and school supply giveaways to hands-on cultural activities. Come breathe deep, laugh loud, and soak up the final days of summer surrounded by beauty, history, and togetherness.
