

The Board of Trustees, the legal voice of the church, is organized and functions according to π2524-2551 in The Book of Discipline. This body is entrusted with the care and supervision of the real and personal property of the local congregation. A minimum of three members no more than nine serve as trustees, with the chairperson being a member of the Church Council.