

The Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations is composed of five to nine members plus the lay leader and the lay member of the annual conference. π259.2.

In a multi-church charge each congregation has representation. The title spells out some of the role and responsibility of this group, which relates to the pastoral (and staff) leadership of the church. Meetings should be held at least quarterly, and again, effective ministry is the focus.

Staff/Pastor/Parish
Relations Committee